

JEFFERSON

Table Lamp MattBlack and Glass

The Jefferson Table Lamp is a refined study in contrast and restraint. A smooth matt black base grounds the design with modern simplicity, while the clear glass dome introduces a sense of precision and quiet drama, allowing the lamp to be viewed as a sculptural object even when unlit. Celebrating the beauty of the light source itself, Jefferson brings a gallery-like presence to sideboards, desks and consoles. Confident yet understated, it is a piece that elevates contemporary and design-led interiors with effortless sophistication.
